Top purchaser from iBuyers accused of aggressive eviction tactics

The company’s Memphis-area rentals also amassed property violations at an unusually high rate, equal to a new violation every day or two, according to The Post.

Source: click here