Case-Shiller: home prices will go up till economy slows or inventory increases

Home prices increased for the 71st straight month, according to the latest S&P CoreLogic Case-Shiller National Home Price NSA Index. Experts believe prices will continue to rise until the market sees an increase in inventory or the economy slows.

Source: click here