Crazy Sh*t In Real Estate: Learning the hard way

Reposted with permission — show notes and credits here.

In this episode, Rosemary Buerger shares how her young clients had to learn a very hard lesson while selling their house.

Real estate agents and owners alike need to do their due diligence when it comes to who they allow into the home, and always put protections in place when selling a home. This crazy story involves two houses, terrible tenants and $10,000 worth of damage.
