CRM LionDesk roars into voice-activated internet with skills for Amazon Echo

Popular real estate CRM LionDesk has launched a skill for Amazon's voice-activated-internet appliance, Echo. Customers of the CRM will soon be able to ask Alexa to share their top three tasks and appointments for the day. It will soon be able to share information about new leads, too.

Source: click here