Daily Dispatch: Don't judge today's market by yesterday's standards

Every day, Inman founder Brad Inman texts and talks with many of the most important people in the real estate industry. Now, in these unprecedented times, he's making some of those conversations public to share with you, the Inman community. Welcome to Brad Inman's Daily Dispatch.

In this Daily Dispatch, Brad is joined by Chris Heller, chief real estate officer at OJO Labs. The idea of home buying and selling may not be a priority for everyone right now, but don't mistake the lack inventory as a sign of increased demand.
