6 tips to make your spring listing look, feel and smell as fresh as the season

You have a spring listing, and it’s time to introduce the home to the world. As the passing shadow of winter makes way for signs of life, any house on the market in the spring should feel as fresh as its surroundings.

Source: click here