Houston in a week: July 4-8

Need news in a flash? Here's what's happening in your community

Interior Homes showcases eight modern homes in Texas and the Houston area.

The Houston-The Woodlands-Sugarland area was considered an overvalued market in CoreLogic's latest Home Price Index report. Only trailing Boston in lowest month-over-month HPI growth of the 10 metros studied, the Houston metro also had the third lowest increases year-over-year. And things aren't expected to get better: the HPI in the Houston metro is forecasted to grow only 1.2 percent by May of next year.

Here's what's happening in your community.

Click To Tweet

REAL Trends recently recognized real estate's best in its 2016 America's Best Real Estate Agents list, breaking down Texas and Houston's best performing agents and teams by closed transaction sides and closed sales volume.

Got a lead on some news happening in your community? Send information to local@inman.com*.*

Source: click here