HUD proposes major overhaul of Section 8, tripling rent for low-income families

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) officials on Wednesday proposed a major overhaul to the country's Section 8 voucher program and the low-income rental subsidies that affect 4.5 million American families.

Source: click here