ICNY 18 Data: Why is creating a national MLS so difficult?

"We're running technology today in multiple locations, there's no scale, the efficiency is minimal, we're 20 years behind the portals ... and yet there's still a debate," says C.A.R. CEO Joel Singer, arguing for a national MLS database (not one MLS). Watch more sessions from ICNY 18 here. Email Inman Save My Seat for ICSF Now...
