Inman announces another 11 Startup Alley participants for ICSF18

Tallahassee, Fla. (June 19, 2018) — Inman Group announced 11 additional companies that will be part of Startup Alley at Inman Connect in San Francisco, July 17 – 20, 2018.

Inman Connect is a multi-day event where some 4,000 top performing real estate professionals take the time to focus on their growth strategies, expand their skill sets and deepen their referral networks. Attendees include leading real estate franchises, independent brokers, MLS and association leaders, tech entrepreneurs and marketing executives.

Startup Alley is a sponsorship opportunity specifically designed for companies just entering the real estate tech scene. Inman attendees look to this area of the event for the next new innovation to help them run their business.

“Early stage companies are a bellwether for the industry as a whole, showing the direction the market is going with new solutions and services that address real needs,” said Publisher Brad Inman. “They come to Startup Alley for exposure, relationship-building and pressure-testing their brand value.”

For more information on how to launch your startup at Inman Connect or other sponsorship and/or exhibitor opportunities, please contact sales@inman.com.

Companies featured in Startup Alley will include:

Source: click here