Luxury Clinton Hill condo building opens up sales gallery

The lifestyle in Brooklyn continues to get more and more luxurious. In the center of Clinton Hill, Fort Greene and Prospect Heights sits the Waverly Brooklyn luxury condominium development, which is now available for Brooklyn condo buyers. Orange Management, a Manhattan-based real estate firm, recently announced the launch of sales for the building located at 500 Waverly Ave. The sales gallery is located on-site by appointment only. The seven-story, 48-unit building boasts a hand-laid Norman brick facade. Inspired by Bauhaus modernism, the frontage is organized as concrete "picture frames." Units in the building start at $595,000 and go up to about $2.4 million. The building is full-service with amenities to boot. A second-floor terrace with a grilling station, landscaped rooftop ...

Source: click here