Connect Las Vegas: Evening Socials and Networking

Inman Connect is designed to foster and enable meaningful relationships. It starts with interactive daily sessions and continues with evening socials, including:

Cocktails at Connect: Tuesday, July 23 from 5:30pm – 6:30pm. Enjoy complimentary wine and beer as you mix and mingle with friends — new and old, colleagues, potential mentors, and future partners.

Kick-Off Party: Tuesday, July 23 from 9:00pm – 12:00am. Kick off Inman Connect Las Vegas in style at the Apex Social Club. Hosted by IDX Broker, you'll enjoy a full bar while dancing to the sounds of DJ LippTrixx and taking in breathtaking views of the Las Vegas skyline.

Booth Bar Crawl Wednesday, July 24 from 5:30pm – 6:30pm. Sip signature drinks and sample unique snacks at themed stations, while meeting the driving forces behind the latest real estate tools and resources to propel your business forward.

Innovator Bash Thursday, July 25 from 8:00pm – 11:00pm. A sensory experience of taste, touch, sight, and sound at Brooklyn Bowl Las Vegas. There will be something for everyone to enjoy— music, dancing, snacks, open bar, and complimentary bowling all night! Reserve your ticket here.

When you attend Inman Connect, you're likely prepared for the educational sessions, inspiring speakers and exposure to new real estate tech that's transforming the way our industry operates.

What you might not be ready for is coming away from the event having forged lasting relationships that will not only accelerate your professional career, but also enrich your life with broadened perspectives.

For Cece Blase, Realtor at Compass, Inman Connect is a game-changer — it shapes how she makes strategic business decisions. But the value doesn't end there. "Inman is also my chance to connect with people in the industry I admire, make terrific new friends and deepen my relationships with the people I already know," she said.

Roger Boutillier, CEO at Nova Scotia Association of Realtors, agrees. "By attending Connect, I have built relationships with vendors, speakers, and peers which have made not only my organization better, but myself as well."

Networking at Inman Connect is such a transformative part of the event, and it starts before attendees even arrive. Weeks ahead of the event, registered attendees engage with each other and make plans in the Inman Facebook Group: Coast to Coast. Others gain insight through the event hashtag #ICLV on Instagram and Twitter, getting a glimpse of what to expect.

"The single biggest thing not to miss is meeting people you don't know! It's easy to sit with colleagues and go to lunch with friends, but you're missing half the value of the event if you're staying within your own sphere," said Lindsay Listanski, Head of Marketing at Climb.
