MLS Grid launches first in Chicago, with plans to expand across the U.S.

MLS Grid, a company formed by several multiple listings services (MLSs) that aims to help brokers and brokerages by unifying and further standardizing property information that brokers get from the MLSs, has launched its shared data platform in the Chicagoland area to start.

Source: click here