NAR's top lawyer weighs in on association director conflicts

As the board of directors of the National Association of Realtors gears up to vote on proposed dues increases, the trade group’s chief attorney reminded its members who the directors owe fiduciary duty to: NAR.

Source: click here