Pharrell unloads Miami penthouse for $9.25 million

Pharrell Williams has a reason to be even more “Happy” these days. The world-famous singer and producer is one Miami penthouse short, but $9.25 million richer after his lavish condo overlooking Biscayne Bay sold last week.

The cylindrical, two-story Miami penthouse is fit for a celebrity, offering 360-degree views of the Atlantic Ocean and Miami skyline. Interior space alone spans almost 10,000 square feet, while a 5,000 square foot private rooftop deck is complemented by a pool and lush greenery.

Bristol Tower Penthouse/Luxe Living Realty

Listed by Dora Puig of Luxe Living Realty, Pharrell’s former condo at 2127 Brickell Ave. contains five bedrooms and 6.5 bathrooms. The waterfront abode is finished in Teak hardwood and Travertine tile flooring.

Luxurious home, endless property amenities

Bristol Tower Penthouse/Luxe Living Realty

Built in 1993, Bristol Tower Penthouse leaves no luxury stone unturned. Thirty-foot ceilings in the great room, Italian finishes designed by Ugo Colombo, a private theatre, private gym, sauna and seven parking spaces are just a few of the spectacular features included in the sale.

The Bristol Tower Penthouse leaves nearly no luxury stone unturned

Click To Tweet

Bristol Tower is located in the Brickell neighborhood of Miami, a financial district just south of downtown. Amenities for Bristol Tower include a tennis court, fitness center, pool and spa, walking garden, playroom, party room, concierge, valet and 24-hour security.

Bristol Tower Penthouse/Luxe Living Realty

According to Redfin, PH4000 originally went on the market for $10.9 million three years ago. The home was temporarily removed until October 2015, when it came back on the market for $10.999 million.

Pharrell original purchased the Miami penthouse in March 2007 for $13.95 million.

Email Jennifer Riner

Source: click here