Realtor association becomes first in nation to offer health plan

The Baldwin County Association of Realtors says it’s the first in the nation to offer group health, dental and vision insurance to its 2,300 members.

Source: click here