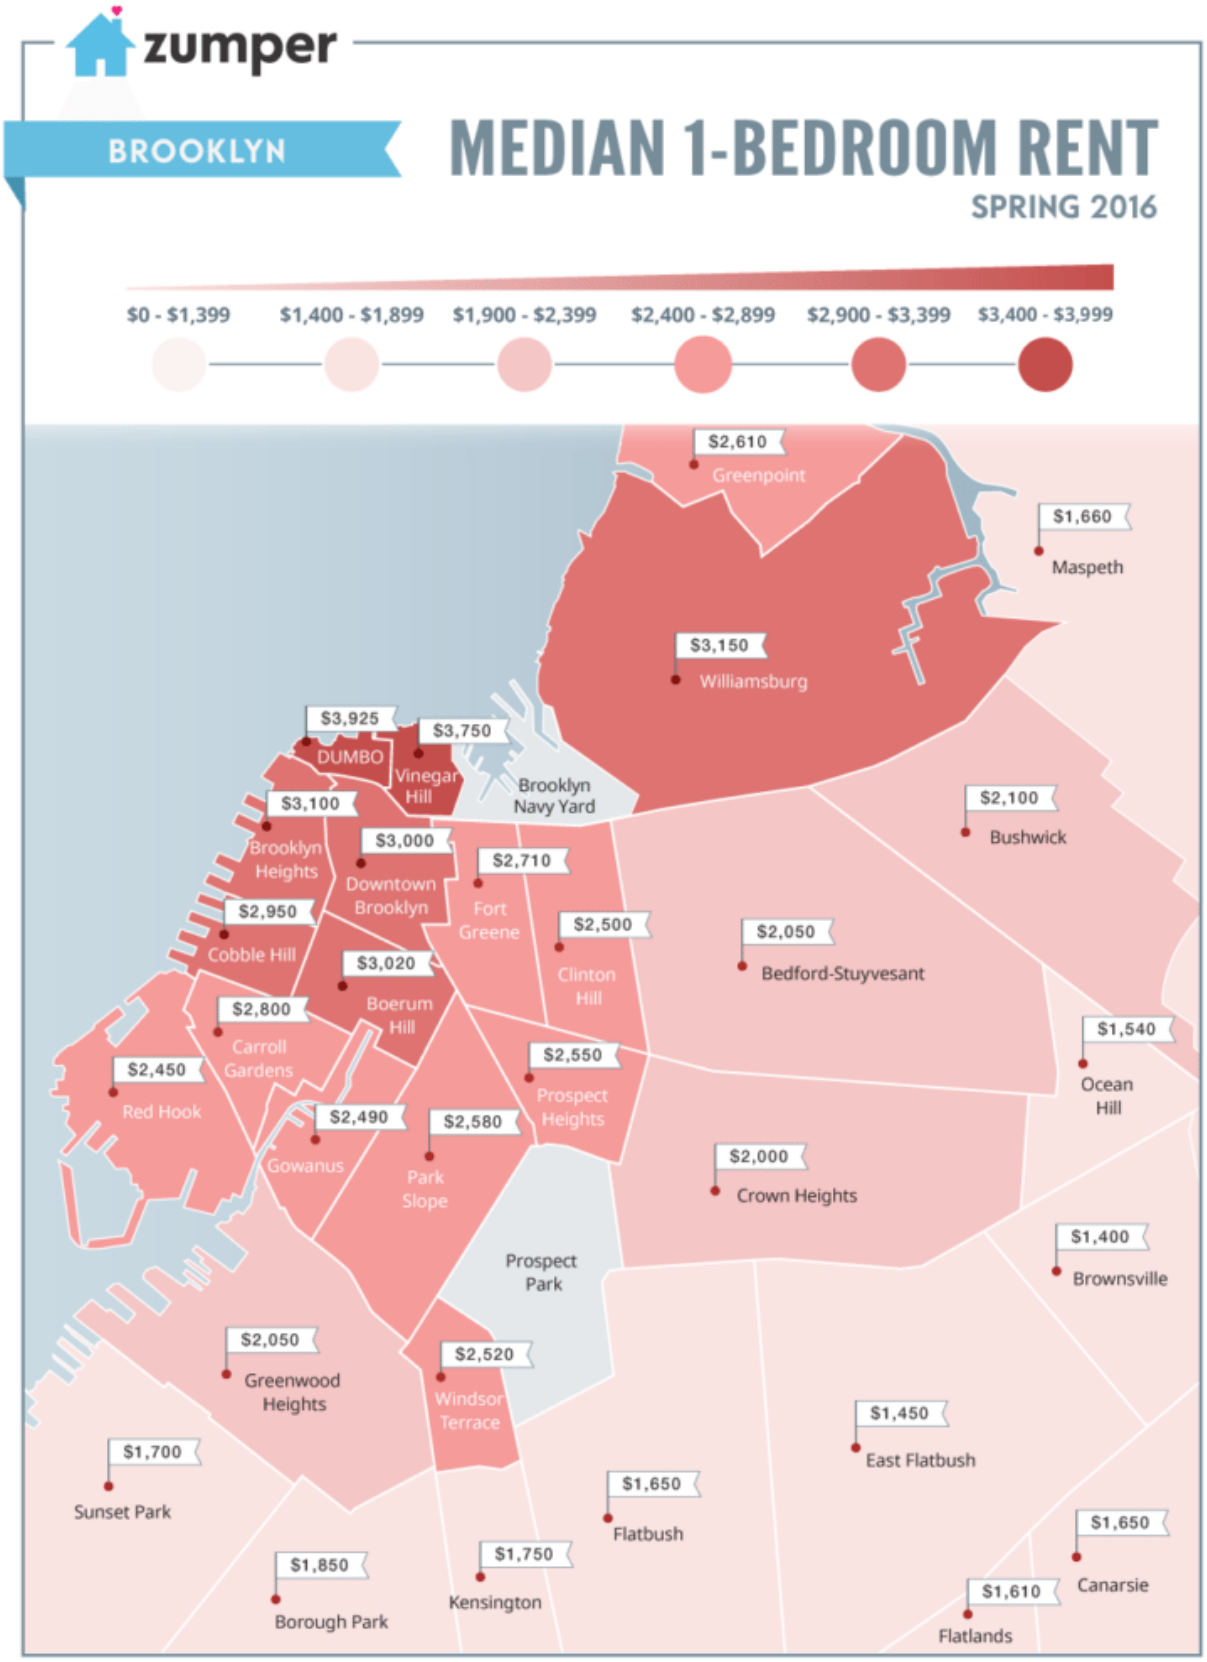
Infographic: How much is it to rent a one-bedroom in Brooklyn?

Zumper recently examined the median rent prices for one-bedroom homes in Brooklyn. Here are its findings:

- Over the past year, rents for both one and two-bedroom units in New York City have each appreciated over 4 percent.
- The most expensive neighborhoods to rent in Brooklyn were Dumbo, Vinegar Hill and Williamsburg — all within the $3,000-$4,000 range.
- More affordable prices could be found for less than $1,650 a month in neighborhoods such as Brownsville, East Flatbush, and Flatlands.



zumper
BROOKLYN
MEDIAN 1-BEDROOM RENT
SPRING 2016
$0 - $1,399
$1,400 - $1,899
$1,900 - $2,399
$2,400 - $2,899
$2,900 - $3,399
$3,400 - $3,999
$2,610
Greenpoint
$1,660
Maspeth
$3,150
Williamsburg
$3,925
DUMBO
$3,750
Vinegar Hill
Brooklyn Navy Yard
$3,100
Brooklyn Heights
$3,000
Downtown Brooklyn
$2,710
Fort Greene
$2,100
Bushwick
$2,950
Cobble Hill
$2,500
Clinton Hill
$2,050
Bedford-Stuyvesant
$3,020
Boerum Hill
$2,800
Carroll Gardens
$1,540
Ocean Hill
$2,450
Red Hook
$2,550
Prospect Heights
$2,490
Gowanus
$2,580
Park Slope
$2,000
Crown Heights
$1,400
Brownsville
Prospect Park
$2,050
Greenwood Heights
$2,520
Windsor Terrace
$1,450
East Flatbush
$1,700
Sunset Park
$1,650
Flatbush
$1,650
Canarsie
$1,850
Borough Park
$1,750
Kensington
$1,610
Flatlands

Brooklyn’s most expensive neighborhoods were Dumbo, Vinegar Hill and Williamsburg

Click To Tweet

Source: click here