Is your business April foolproof? Ask yourself these 5 questions

The key to making your business goals in 2019 is making sure you’re on track along the way. As the second quarter begins, ask yourself these questions, and answer honestly. Then retool if need be to stay on track the rest of the year.

Source: click here